3. The profile of PE and sport is raised across the school as a tool for whole school improvement.

Objective(s)	Intended outcomes	Actions (including person responsible)	Breakdown of spend	Impact on participation & attainment	How have you demonstrated sustainable improvements
- To encourage regular movement breaks throughout the day in addition to weekly PE lessons.	All classes will be more active throughout the day completing the daily mile, 'Go Noodle', just dance and Kagan Strategies (30 minutes of activity every day).	Class teachers to timetable extra 30 mins per day as evidence to be monitored by the PE Lead.	N/A	Children more responsive/less passive in lessons due to taking part in regular short active sessions to boost energy and enthusiasm.	Teachers recognise the benefits of a more active timetable and therefore will continue to plan their days including regular movement breaks. Children are more enthusiastic and more willing to contribute during lessons due to keeping active in short bursts. This will lead to academic progress over time.
- To audit and replenish stock.	Stock available for PE lessons and playtimes.	PE lead to audit and order stock.	£737.35	Children have equipment readily available for playtimes and lunch times.
-To raise the profile of sport by attending various non-competitive events and listening to talks from outside agencies.
